

Description

Hosted by the Florida Housing Coalition, this half-day convening brings local stakeholders together to discuss the Opportunity Zones (OZ) incentive and better understand market opportunities in the County's designated Opportunity Zones neighborhoods. Engage with partners already working on deals in Florida, hear from local leaders on the front lines of OZ, review key market characteristics of the County's OZs, and network with like-minded colleagues. The event will be hosted at the beautiful Riviera Beach Marina Event Center. Refreshments will be available.
