Camacho Recognized as Outstanding School Employee of the Year

Julissa Camacho won the Palm Beach Association of School Psychologist (PBASP) 2018-2019 Outstanding School Employee of the Year Award. Mrs. Camacho, a native of Belle Glade, is a graduate of Glades Central Community High School. She has worked for the School District of Palm Beach County for 13+ years. She has held several job titles during that time including Media Clerk, Data Processor, Bookkeeper, and Administrative Assistant. The majority of Mrs. Camacho's work experience has been with the Exceptional Student Education department, where she worked directly with the School Psychologists. She shared that [she is], "...thankful to have been nominated for the PBASP 2019 Outstanding School Employee Award. A special thanks to those who have recognized my hard work and dedication to the School District of Palm Beach County."

Mrs. Camacho was recognized during the PBASP end of year luncheon at Brio Tuscan Grill in Palm Beach Gardens on Friday, May 31, 2019, with her husband and parents in attendance. She currently is the School Administrative Assistant at West Technical Education Center in Belle Glade.
