Birth to 22: United for Brighter Futures wants to ensure that all of its young people have the chance to thrive as children and succeed as adults. The voices of children and youth, and adults who care about them, are vital to implementing the Youth Master Plan and ensuring that a difference is made in our community. Now is your chance to help shape the future of youth in Palm Beach County by joining this upcoming community conversation. Additional conversations to be announced. To RSVP or for more information, contact LaShonda Lacey or Geeta Loach Jacobson at lacey@pbcgov.org or call 561.242.5713. Click here to learn more about Birth to 22.

competition showcases the talent of local kids throughout Palm Beach, Broward, Miami- Dade, and Monroe Counties. Students and kid artists have the opportunity to create artwork that depicts "how food makes you feel", shedding a light on the issue of hunger that impacts far too many of South Florida's children. Three Palm Beach County businesses working to help improve outcomes for children and youth were named "2019 Birth to 22 Business Champions" Friday during the second annual Birth to 22 Business Breakfast April 12 at the West Palm Beach Marriott. Each Business Champion selected a local charity to receive a share of the proceeds from Friday's event, called "Birth to 22: Shaping Our Children's Future Together." Learn more here.

Swim lesson vouchers for individuals and groups are available starting today from the Drowning Prevention Coalition of Palm Beach County. The $50 vouchers either entirely or nearly cover the cost of six to eight swim lessons at 19 Palm Beach County pools. The vouchers are for Palm Beach County families with children between the ages of 2 and 12 who need to learn how to swim. Families must meet certain financial qualifications. Vouchers also are available for special-needs students. To learn more and fill out an online application, go to www.pbcgov.org/dpc. If you have a summer camp that needs help paying for swim lessons, please email Drowning Prevention Coalition Manager Anna Stewart at AStewart@pbcgov.org. The vouchers are on a first-come, first-served basis and will be available until funds run out.
