The Human Trafficking Coalition is an extraordinary and vital partner in our human trafficking prevention program. The Palm Beach Dramaworks One Humanity Tour school touring production for 7th grade students of Live to Tell by Eric Coble is followed by an insightful and powerful talkback with HTCPB team members. Over 6,900 students to date have been educated thoroughly about the dangers and warning signs. They are saving lives! Gary Cadwallader, Director of Education and Community Engagement, PBD.

Excellent training for all our hotel associates on this critical issue that needs resolution. We even had our General Managers from other properties in our portfolio join this detailed and very educational training. We make this issue a top priority and the more we all are aware the closer we move to a resolution. We recommend the HTCPB to any organization looking to host a training. Our associates proudly display their certificates at the properties which also make anyone involved in this horrible situation aware that we are aware of your possible intentions and it will not go unnoticed or reported immediately. Human Trafficking Coalition of the Palm Beaches has been doing presentations for my middle school for many years now. The presenters are always knowledgeable and professional. They also know how to meet their audience at their level and make it very comfortable for the teens with an uncomfortable topic. I would recommend them for education about this important issue that happens right in our own communities that a lot of people are not aware of.

Human Trafficking Coalition of the Palm Beaches is an incredibly valuable resource that help us raise awareness about the horrible crime of human trafficking. As a mother and College instructor, I appreciate very much all they do to, hopefully one day, eliminate human trafficking. The trainer is a very knowledgeable person, with whom working is a pleasure because of their professionalism, dedication and willingness to make it work every time. I hope that more people can use this resource so more people are aware of how human trafficking is happening all around us.
