Dear Community Partners:

Triple -H- Community Center, The Florida Department of Health and Palm Beach County, Monarch Health Services, Inc, Planned Parenthood, Crossing Bridges of Palm Beaches, U-2 Health and AIDS Healthcare Foundation are working together to host our inaugural Western County Back to School Bash Health and Wellness Day.

Our primary goal is to promote a healthy community and environment by assuring essential health, educational and prevention services. By providing opportunities for the community to come together to learn and explore resources available to them throughout Palm Beach County. The Western County Back to School Bash Health and Wellness Day will educate, empower and encourage the community to take control of their personal and sexual health, and well-being.

This event is free to all community residents and will include: speakers, entertainment, wellness checks, pre- & post HIV and STD screenings, refreshments, incentives and other informational resources.

We would like to invite you to participate by attending and sharing information regarding your organization's programs and services. Please consider sharing, donating your time, providing monetary sponsorship, in-kind donation or other resources to help us ensuring this event will continue to be a success our community residence.

Thank you in advance. For your convenience, the registration and donation forms are attached. For more information, you may contact me at 561-766-1769 or 561-255-7711

Sincerely,

Caroline Hill
