

CEO Circles: Powerful Support for Nonprofit Leaders

"As C-level execs, we may check in with peers to pick their brains, vent, and maybe ask a question, all of which is quick and helpful. But, our own long-range development requires deeper reflection, and reflection takes time. CEO Circles capture the best of those relationships, while diving below the surface for long-lasting, personal growth."

--- Karen Hilo

Learn more about CEO Circles!

As a nonprofit leader, where do you turn when you need clarity, guidance, a sounding board, encouragement, accountability, and wisdom? Who are your trusted advisers? CEO Circles are designed to surround you with peers who are diverse in voice and perspective: respected leaders who are as interested in professional growth and expanding their capacity as you are. This is time carved out for you to reflect and be challenged, whether working through your own or your peers' business dilemmas. Confidentiality and inclusion are fundamental commitments by each participant.

Join facilitator Karen Hilo of Sea Level Consulting and your nonprofit leader peers for the next cycle, beginning with breakfast on Friday morning, August 5th.

FREE INTRO SESSION: Contact Todd L'Herrou for permission to attend Aug 5th session on a trial basis.

Learn More & Apply

Nonprofit Leadership Education

Nonprofits First's Leadership program has been a core of our education programming, transforming emerging talent into the sector's new generation of leaders.

Our Rising Leaders program is for those who are new to managing or leading teams; Advancing Leaders is for individuals who are in or moving into upper-level nonprofit management positions; and our new **Nonprofit CEO Circles** (led by Karen Hilo) provide a confidential, supportive, and collaborative forum for nonprofit leaders to come together to grow and share their experiences and challenges.

Click below to learn more about CEO Circles (or contact Todd L'Herrou for information).

Apply Now for the next CEO Circle

All upcoming education classes

