

January 2020

This month, Nonprofits First is focusing our member spotlight on a world many of us aren't familiar with: traditional Japanese performing arts.

Fushu Daiko (Japan Arts Inc) educates and enriches our community through performances, classes, workshops, and outreach programs related to the experience of taiko drumming.

There's a lot to learn and understand, so we asked Ben Miller, executive director of Fushu Daiko, to explain his organization and its mission in Palm Beach County and beyond.

Capital One Welcomed Members to the Capital One Cafe for Coffee and Bites

Sixty-five members gathered to network in January at the Capital One Cafe in downtown West Palm Beach. Did you know that Capital One card holders get half priced menu items and nonprofits and community groups can reserve the private conference room for free? Thank you Capital One!

Executive Mastermind is Back by Popular Demand

In 2019, a cohort of 20 executives worked monthly with professional advisor, motivational speaker, and executive coach Roy Assad. In the Executive Mastermind 2020, participants will challenge each other to set powerful goals, and more importantly, to accomplish them. The group requires commitment, confidentiality, willingness to both give and receive advice and ideas, and support each other with total honesty, respect and compassion.
