Commissioner Melissa McKinlay Named President-Elect of Florida
Association of Counties

Palm Beach County Commissioner Melissa McKinlay was named President-Elect of the Florida Association of Counties (FAC) at the organization's annual conference in June.

"It's an honor to have the trust of county officials throughout the state, and I look forward to continuing my efforts to help protect home rule authority in this new role," Commissioner McKinlay said.

She will serve as President-Elect for the next year and is in line to become President next summer. Commissioner McKinlay previously served as 1st Vice President of FAC from 2018-2019.

For more than 85 years, the Florida Association of Counties (FAC) has represented the diverse interests of Florida's counties, emphasizing the importance of protecting home rule – the concept that government closest to the people governs best. The Florida Association of Counties helps counties effectively serve and represent Floridians by strengthening and preserving county home rule through advocacy, education and collaboration.
