

Join Us at the Table on November 13th!

LET'S CONTINUE THE CONVERSATION ON NOVEMBER 13TH.

Last year, over 4,000 residents from Palm Beach and Martin Counties came together to discuss community issues. We heard your voices, and now it is time to take a deeper look.

On the Table connects individuals and communities of diverse perspectives and backgrounds. They gather over a meal, coffee, or cocktails to talk about their experiences—and listen to their neighbors—with the goal of creating a more unified community.

JOIN US FOR YEAR TWO!

When: Wednesday, November 13, 2019

Who: Anyone in Palm Beach or Martin County! You can host or attend a conversation.

Where: At community centers, local restaurants, libraries, private homes, offices - literally anywhere a host chooses. Conversations can be sit-down, catered, picnic, or potluck - completely up to each host

Why: Thousands of diverse residents from all walks of life will gather throughout the area to discuss meaningful ideas to strengthen our community.

WHAT'S NEW THIS YEAR?

1.) We are excited to invite our middle school and high school age students to have their voices heard. (View the Youth Toolkit)

2.) To reflect the results of the 2018 survey, we have narrowed down the topics of conversation to the top three issues that affect our community:

Housing

Economic Security

Education

Take a few minutes to watch the below video discussing the 2018 results or view full survey results online.

The Community Foundation for Palm Beach and Martin County's On the Table conversations are part of a national initiative funded by the John S. and James L. Knight Foundation. On the Table replicates an annual civic engagement initiative of the same name developed by The Chicago Community Trust in 2014. Support for On the Table advances Knight Foundation's work to help cities attract and keep talented people, expand economic opportunity and create a culture of civic engagement. Knight Foundation believes that successful communities are equitable, inclusive and participatory.
