Once you have completed this step by step document and have compiled all required supporting documents, you can simply copy/paste your answers and upload the files into the online application. Please note that you will no longer have access to your application once it submitted online (all submissions are therefore final). You will receive an email confirming receipt of your entry.

Please pay close attention to the guidelines provided in the Word document regarding uploads, bullet points, etc. We recommend using Firefox web browser.

As soon as your application is received, all applicants will be sent through a vetting process in partnership with Bank of America. Should we have any questions or need additional information, we will be sure to reach out to you before a decision is reached.

We look forward to you joining us for the 11th annual edition of the GCC!

The Great Charity Challenge and Equestrian Sport Productions

DRAWINGS

A large majority of the drawings will be done between December 1 and December 15, 2019. Note that you should not plan on being present for these. We will be doing them live on social media and will be sure to notify you asap if you are drawn!

All applicants should plan on having a minimum of (2) representatives join us on Saturday, February 1, 2020 to be eligible to receive grants, additional drawings and/or to participate. This is the ONLY mandatory report date to participate in the event.
